

We Will Create Your Dream

The most wonderful, amazing, incredible day of your life is approaching. It must be unforgettable; your wildest dreams come true....And it must be more.

Everything must be perfect, like walking on air through a gentle, scented breeze....And it must be more.

Music fit for angels, flowers as beautiful as your thoughts....And it must be more.

We will bring you....more.

As creative wedding planners, we know that your day must be like no other that has gone before and like no other that will ever be. It must be YOUR day. The joining of two loves for eternity. Two different people become one. Two lives intertwine. We will get to know your desires. Understand what you are looking for and bring you more than you have ever dreamed. To your hopes, we will add our experience. To your tastes, we will add our special flare. To your dreams, we will wave a little wand.

We don't offer wedding 'packages', each of our weddings is as unique as the couples we serve. The day will be yours, not a copy of last week's or a version of last month's- or one we will copy another time. We will create your wonderful day. For you.

We have reserved access to a number of very exclusive venues, both for the wedding service and for the later reception. As in all things, we will cater fully to your requirements. Likewise, the catering is an empty palette, which we can help you to colour to your very own individual tastes. Music and entertainment can be arranged and can flow seamlessly with the day- from the service through to the reception and then through to later dancing.

The décor for your chosen venue will be carefully crafted to envelop you and your guests in the joy and beauty of the occasion. Each item of furniture and table centerpiece carefully chosen to compliment the day and the joyous couple at its centre. And you will be at the centre of all things. This day will be, truly, yours.

We pride ourselves on our discretion and are well used to working with those for whom privacy is of particular importance. Be assured, our reputation depends upon your good opinion- and our professionalism is the source of our own good opinion.

Whatever your dreams for this wonderful day, let us help them come true.

We will bring you dreams you didn't even know you had!
